Kevin and Barbara Quinn receive Bishop Shanahan High School award

Quinn is President of First National Bank of Chester County

DOWNINGTOWN _ Kevin Quinn, President of First National Bank of Chester County, and his wife Barbara were presented with the Shanahan Medal by school President Sister Regina Plunkett.

They were honored for their commitment and dedication to Catholic education. The award was given last month at Bishop Shanahan's graduation ceremonies.

Quinn told the graduates, "Barbara and I are honored to receive the Shanahan Medal. It's easy to contribute and stay involved in an institution like Bishop Shanahan, one that we care so deeply about and one that is such an important part of our lives."

"In every aspect of our Shanahan experience, we all focus on being 'People of God, People for Others.' The school's motto is 'Seek the things that are found above.' As you leave Shanahan and move on to the next chapter of your lives, these are two great themes to live by. That's what Barbara and I have tried to do in our commitment to Shanahan and we encourage you to stay involved with Bishop Shanahan and other worthy organizations."
